

An afternoon of storytelling with your friendly,
neighborhood peeps!

From childhood discoveries to family sized closets.. drown in hearty chortles, misty eyes or some passionate back and forth.

Hop on...
the Rainbow-story-bus!

“YOU HAVE SOME QUEER FRIENDS, DOROTHY,’ SHE SAID.

THE QUEERNESS DOESN'T MATTER, SO LONG AS THEY'RE FRIENDS,' WAS THE ANSWER”

‘OH NO SHE DIDN’T!’, and other stories

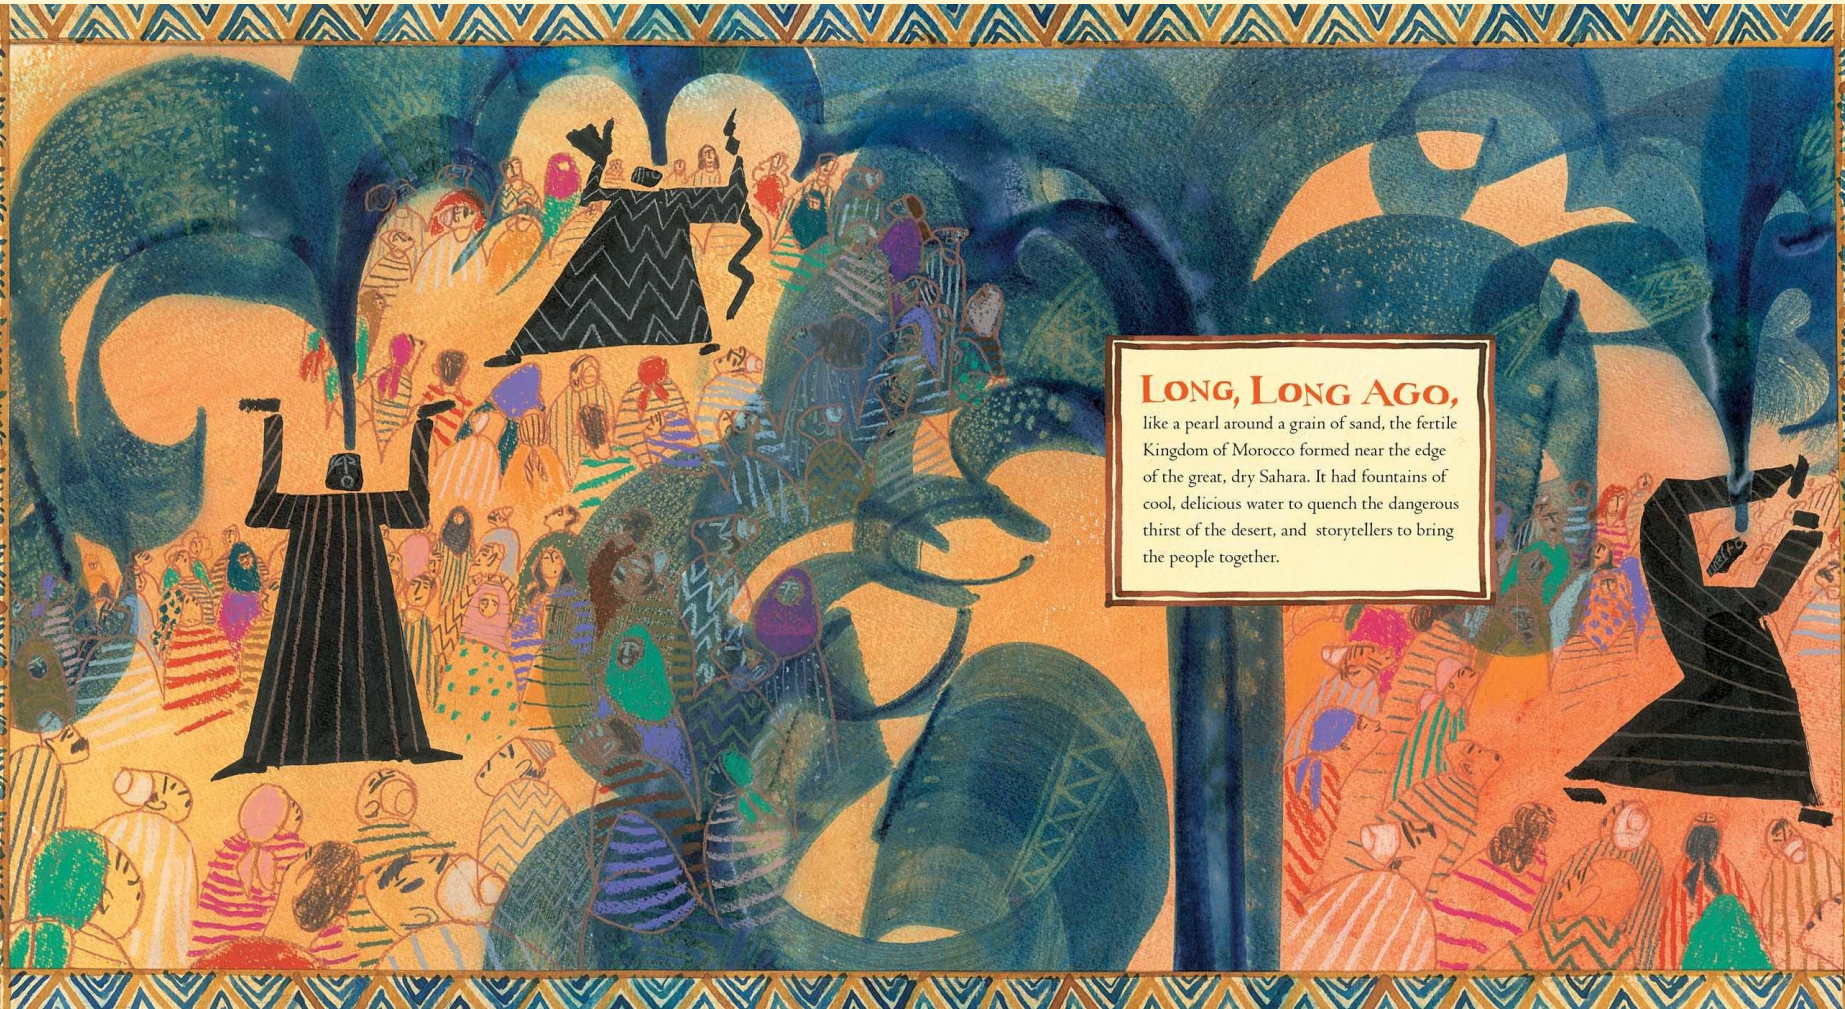

Previously...

"There was positive energy... love, warmth and human connections. All of the volunteers and members gave me overwhelming responses and accounts of their day, some in hopeful joy! Mostly, it was so humane." - Haider Jasdan, Adobe.

LONG, LONG AGO,
like a pearl around a grain of sand, the fertile Kingdom of Morocco formed near the edge of the great, dry Sahara. It had fountains of cool, delicious water to quench the dangerous thirst of the desert, and storytellers to bring the people together.

A young, queer-feminist collective with the unwavering goal of promoting and facilitating equality. We work with corporates, NGOs, communities and individuals to bring about diversity and inclusion in smart, impactful and creative ways.